Experiencing God's Dream for Your Marriage The Marriage that God Desires for You

By: Chip Ingram

Marriage isn't easy. It seems like everywhere you look there are couples that are throwing in the towel and walking away from their marriages, but there is hope. Your marriage really can be positive, rich, intimate and deeply satisfying. God, the designer and architect of great relationships has provided us with a blueprint for building a great marriage. In this series, you'll learn what God's dream for your marriage looks like, how to identify the major barriers to intimacy and how to move past them, as well as how to deal with conflict and communicate more clearly and effectively with your spouse.

We have the Hampton Inn in Bloomington reserved for this Marriage Retreat. Please call Elizabeth Meek/Director of Sales at: 812-334-0678 or 812-334-2100 (emeek@fhginc.com) and give her your information for your room. Breakfast is provided. We will break out and have lunch on Saturday, which there are several restaurants nearby to choose from. The only cost you will need to pay is your room ($119) and your lunch. If you really want to attend and the hotel cost will be a burden – please let us know. Thanks!
